

ALL CHANGE AT KINGS CROSS

A Private Tour

This walk will be a 90 minute guided exploration of the 67 acre Kings Cross development, detailing its transformation from a 19th century industrial goods yard to a modern vibrant area, blending the old with the new.

This linear walk covers the regeneration of the area, providing insight into its industrial past and its current status as a design and residential hub. It will start under the clock tower at Kings Cross Station and finish at the British Library.
